Joe Thomas Voices for 11/13

Finally, Joe Thomas has come back to KURY Radio of Brookings Oregon!

This editorial is being sponsored by Kevin Spacey and NAMBLA. That's OK. The freaks at NAMBLA can settle down now. I was only kidding. I would never associate myself with the freaky creeps over at NAMBLA. I leave it up to Hollywood and the United Nations. You heard me right, NAMBLA is officially sponsored by the United Nations.

Corey Feldman has told stories about getting molested as a child actor, and he does not get any sponsorship from Hollywood. Official or otherwise. There are pedophile rings all over the place, in this country and worldwide. Dennis Hastert, the former Speaker of the House was exposed recently for being a child molester and he was sent to prison. That was only in the news for a day or two when it happened. I guess that news outlets like CNN and Time magazine were too busy talking about Trump eating too much ice cream at the White House or making up stories about Trump and hookers in Moscow. If you ask me the logo for CNN should be a large toilet because they obviously write down all their ideas on toilet paper. One reason why they call CNN the Clinton News Network is because CNN spends way too much time around the commode, just like Hillary Clinton.

A reporter for CNN refused to help the New York City police catch that Muslim radical idiot who killed all those people with his truck. Good job CNN! I would call this Exhibit Number One for why CNN should have their broadcasting license pulled and taken off the air. Oh, by the way, some people also call CNN the Creepy News Network.
