

Joe Thomas

Voices for 1/8

Finally, Joe Thomas has come back to KURY Radio of Brookings, Oregon to take on the New World Order!

The Jerks over at CNN go around smoking pot on New Year's Eve because they want to show everyone how cool they are. CNN does not remind me of the famous gonzo journalist Hunter S. Thomas of Rolling Stone magazine and they do not even remind me of Will Ferrell and his buddies smoking crack cocaine in Anchorman 2. CNN reminds me of Richard Gere. You might think Richard Gere is most famous for doing movies like Pretty Woman. Richard Gere is most famous for sticking a gerbil up his own behind. CNN reminds me of Geraldo Rivera when he opened up Al Capone's vault and nothing was inside. Nothing was in there, just like Joy Behar's empty head.

From what I read in the tabloids it is not anything new for the workers at CNN to show up for work intoxicated and high on something. How about some drug testing for everyone at CNN. I am sure at least half their staff would have to quit.

The morons at CNN have to be high on something when you see how much those dorks freaked out when the FOX News truck supposedly blocked their view at Donald Trump's golf course.

Funny how the losers at CNN were not so concerned about such things when their hero Obama was president. Tony Montana got all freaked out about where a truck was parked in Scarface. Al Pacino put his face down in a pile of cocaine blow at the end of that movie. Maybe Al Pacino should buy CNN and call it the Tony Montana Network.
