Nancy Pelosi is 10 Billion Years Old

Yes! You are listening to me, Joe Thomas, here on 910 AM Radio, home of the Portland Trailblazers.

Now the Never Trumpers are throwing a fit over Kid Rock singing the National Anthem at the NHL All-Star Game. You have got to be kidding me. Most regular people do not give a Rat's Rear End about the All-Star games because they are absolutely horrible most of the time and they are little more than glorified exhibition games. The NFL should have gotten rid of the Pro Bowl a long time ago. Anybody that would worry about Kid Rock singing the National Anthem at the NHL All-Star game is a total loser who has way too much time in their hands and they should really get a life.

These same morons got upset about Gary Sinise being the Grand Marshall of the Rose Parade in Pasadena. Why is there a problem with Gary Sinise? Everybody knows about all the wonderful charity Gary Sinise has done for wounded soldiers and the veterans for so many years. Is Gary Sinise a pervert like Bill Cosby or Harvey Weinstein? No! Some sad and pathetic souls have a bug up their behinds because Gary Sinise supported Trump for president. How childish!

There have been some rumors going around that Jerry Brown and Nancy Pelosi are 10 billion years old. This is so silly. Everybody knows there are no records that go back that far so there is no way anybody could ever be 100 percent sure.

And remember kids, Meryl Streep is a creep and stupid is as Tom Hanks does.
