THIS IS LEA SEVEY FOR THE BROOKINGS HARBOR VOICES -

February is teen dating violence awareness month and this message is brought to you by Oasis Shelter Home.

Did you know that:

- 1 in 3 adolescents in the U.S. is a victim of abuse by a dating partner? and
- that over 80% of parents surveyed believe that teen dating violence isn't an issue?

Teachers and others who work with young people - do you know the warning signs of someone in an abusive relationship? This is a shout out to call us to schedule a training or consultation.

Kids - Do you have relationship questions but don't know who to ask? For confidential help contact us at 1-800-447-1167 or 247-7600. You can text us at 541 373 1120 or I.M. us through Facebook.

Remember: You have the right to say no anytime to sex, drugs, alcohol or a relationship even if you've said yes before.

Oasis is a 501 C 3 non profit - that means our services are free.

We have a staff of highly trained and compassionate people who want to help. We'll go at your pace and we'll never tell you what to do. We give emotional support and help you explore your options.

So CHOOSE YOU!

If you know someone who is in an abusive relationship call us and we can give you ideas about how to help them.
